

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

NATIONSTAR MORTGAGE LLC,

Plaintiff(s), vs.

FLAMINGO TRAILS NO. 7 LANDSCAPE
 MAINTENANCE ASSOCIATION, INC., et al.

Defendant(s).

Case No. 2:15-cv-01268-RFB-NJK

ORDER

Pending before the Court is a proposed discovery plan seeking one year to conduct discovery. Docket No. 13. The presumptively reasonable discovery period is 180 days. See, e.g., Local Rule 26-1(e)(1). The primary reason provided by the parties for doubling the presumptively reasonable discovery period is that counsel are all litigating many similar lawsuits. See Docket No. 13 at 2. That is not good reason to extend the discovery period. See, e.g., Nationstar Mortgage LLC v. Aurora Canyon Homeowners Association, Case No.2:15-cv-1308-MMD-NJK (D. Nev. Aug. 21, 2015) (Docket No. 26) (citing Greene v. Alhambra Hosp. Med. Ctr., 2015 U.S. Dist. Lexis 72697, *3 (D. Nev. June 3, 2015)). The parties next assert that “[a]dditional time is also needed to locate and produce all relevant documents and to conduct depositions and other discovery that may be required.” Docket No. 13 at 2. Such a bald statement that discovery needs to be conducted is plainly insufficient to extend the presumptively reasonable discovery period. Lastly, the parties indicate that one defendant has yet to appear. See id. Based on this last reason, the Court will provide the parties with an additional 45 days of discovery.

1 As such, the proposed discovery plan is hereby DENIED. The parties shall file, no later than
2 September 16, 2015, an amended discovery plan providing a discovery period of 225 days calculated
3 from the date the first defendant answered.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED.
